Issue 43: Trinidad and Tobago

Truth For Trinidad

Siddhant Yogi sat on the floor with a group of children in his home country, India. But he wasn't talking about India. He is a missionary in Trinidad and was telling the children about the nation and people of Trinidad and Tobago, and about the work he and his wife do there.

Mr. Yogi said, “Twelve-year-old Drizzle came to our Vacation Bible School. We had a team from China there helping us. They gave cards to the children to write their prayer requests, favorite food or interests. Drizzle’s prayer request was:

I have never seen my mother. I live with my father and step mother. I really, really want to see my mother.

“The team went home and prayed for Drizzle. After they did, that same week Drizzle saw her mother's picture in the newspaper. Later she went to her house and met her.

“The following Sunday Drizzle came to the house church. Usually at our house church we have a sharing time of answered prayers. I asked if there were any prayers answered. Drizzle raised her hand. She stood up and told the story of how she met her mother.

There were tears in our eyes. God is faithful. We still pray for Drizzle. She has many struggles.”

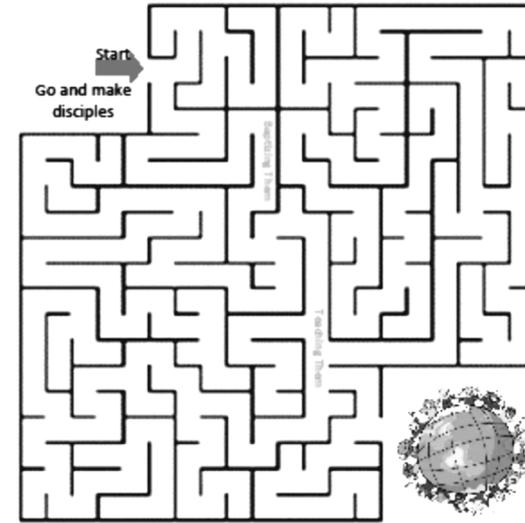

Mr. Yogi smiled at the children. “Would you like to hear another story about prayer?” he asked.

“YES!” they all answered.

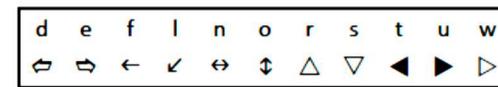

“This story is about Sanchez. I had been praying for seven years to plant a church in a place called

Find your way through this maze to follow Jesus' command to make disciples of all nations.

The Great Commission

Matthew 28:19-20 and more

Jesus came and said to His disciples,

“All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.

And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

Matthew 28:19-20, ESV

When Mr. and Mrs. Yogi tell people in Trinidad about Jesus and teach them to pray and teach others to also follow Jesus, they are making disciples of Jesus, just as He told us to do.

Corinth Hills in Trinidad. There were over 700 homes being built by the government for low income families. A visiting team helped us there with a week of meetings to teach the Gospel. Over twenty people asked Jesus to be their Savior. Sanchez was one of them. He was about twelve years old. He invited several friends to also come to the night meetings.

“Sanchez loves Jesus a lot, and prays a lot for his father who is not a Christian. Sanchez’s father lives on another island. Sanchez lives with his mother and her friend. Sanchez has challenges and needs encouragement and prayers, too. He may become a leader one day. Please pray for guidance for him.”

Mr. Yogi and children of Corinth Hills

“Every Sunday Sanchez would go from house to house, whistling and knocking on doors and windows. He would call people on his cell phone to get them ready for Sunday worship.

“In that way God answered my prayer for a church to start in Corinth Hills.

After this story, the children sat quietly, thinking about people they needed to pray for, too.

Will you stop and pray now that more people in Trinidad will hear about Jesus and believe in Him as their Savior?
